GRAND OFFICER . . . Billie Kerber, junior past matron of Torrance Chapter No. 380, O. E. S., was honored by the appointment to the office of Grand Ruth of the grand chapter, State of California, Order of the Eastern Star, when she attended grand chapter in San Francisco earlier this month. Her appointment came through Logan Cotton of Redondo Beach who was elected as worthy grand patron of the State of California. Others attending the three-day session were Frances Buckley, Naoma Brown, Bettina Miller, Helen Miller, Hazel Fossum and Jack Miller. An exquisite corsage of orchids, worn by Mrs. Kerber at the installation rites, was a gift from Torrance chapter.

LOMITA-SAN PEDRO REPORTS MEETING
At the recent meeting of the Lomita-San Pedro Council P.T.A., plans were made for November and December activities. At the next regular meeting of the council on Nov. 17, to be held at the Lomita Elementary School, a poster contest will be featured. All schools are urged to enter posters used in exhibiting their monthly programs. From these will be chosen the three best to be sent to the 10th District P.T.A. Conservation will be the theme of the month and all members attending are asked to bring articles they have used in conserving. This may be food, clothing or household products.

All schools have reached their membership goals but are continuing the drive until Dec. 1 to enable others to share in the school programs, it was reported.

All schools were asked to plan on a Christmas project. A committee, with Mrs. B. E. Davies of Cabrillo School as chairman, Mrs. Billy Rice of Bantini, Mrs. J. P. Hannebrink of Lomita and Mrs. S. Coats of Walteria, was appointed to plan a Christmas party for the Meyler Street and Torrance Development Schools. The money from the paper drive conducted during November will be given to the Yale Street Clinic to aid in the fine work that is done there for school children. The music scholarship tea will be held Dec. 1 at Dana Junior High School, San Pedro.

V.F.W. Auxiliary, No. 3251, will be hostess to the district Thursday evening, Nov. 9, at Civic Auditorium. More than 200 will attend, it is reported. The occasion will mark a visit from Margaret C. Miller of Bakersfield, state president. Hazle Garrey of Huntington Park, 4th district president, will hold official inspection. Mrs. Clara Conner, president, will present for initiation the following candidates:

Rena Hiatt, Barbara Hiatt, Lillian Hiatt, Helen Lichtenstern, Bessie Abernathy, Barbara Hoppert, Mildred Hoppert, Hestetta Perkin, Nellie Sutton, Mary Walden, Marie Kikkiligher, Lieut. Virginia Hayenga, Margaret Noah, Alice Palmer, Mabel Webb, Pyhllis Custich and Bernadette Dunean.

Post 3251 will meet at Moose Hall and at the conclusion of the ritualistic work will join the ladies at Civic Auditorium, where refreshments will be served and a social hour will be enjoyed.

A meeting of Los Angeles County Council, held Friday at Patriotic Hall, Los Angeles, Mrs. Clara Conner was honored by being elected as standard bearer for that unit.

ELEMENTARY P.T.A. AT INTERESTING MEET
The juvenile delinquency problem in the community was discussed by Mrs. Mary Eggleston, guest speaker at the October meeting of Torrance Elementary P.T.A. Tuesday, Oct. 24.

Mrs. Eggleston, director for Torrance Service Center for Community Chest agencies, related some of her experiences in a children's home where she was once a supervisor. She told of many methods of helping the problem child and the juvenile delinquent.

Mrs. Ralph Perry presided at the business session and she announced that the school's first paper drive of the term would be held on Dec. 6 and 7 and that war stamps are being sold each Wednesday at school. Miss Norma Look presented the school chorus in two songs as the school's participation in the program. Tea was served by the third and fourth grade room mothers.

GATEWAY P.T.A. TO MEET MONDAY
Gateway Council P.T.A. will hold a meeting at 10 a.m. on Nov. 6 at San Pedro High School. Mrs. Roberts, art chairman, will discuss holiday table arrangements and gift wrappings. Conservation and thrift, health, membership, publicity and legislation committee chairmen's reports will also be featured.

Mrs. Albert Dippell, 10th District mental hygiene chairman, will conduct a conference Friday, Nov. 3, at 10:30 a.m. in Room 566, Chamber of Commerce Building, Los Angeles. Council and local health chairmen are urged to attend. Plans will be made for speakers to appear each Friday, Nov. 10 to Dec. 15, in Room 770, Chamber of Commerce Building. Anyone interested in mental hygiene will be welcome at these conferences.
